An extraordinary chance awaits on this remarkable 149.96 acre property. A portion of this land has been zoned direct control, presenting an exclusive opportunity to operate a racetrack and campground, igniting the thrill of adventure and leisure. The remaining balance of the property is zoned Agricultural, offering endless possibilities for cultivation and growth. It is important to note that the direct control zoning does come with certain limitations, which can be explored further in the direct control bylaw included in this package. Additionally, the property boasts the advantage of surface lease revenue, ensuring a stream of income. With its gently rolling farm land, this property is a canvas for your dreams to flourish and your aspirations to take flight.
